

Confidentiality agreement (unilateral)

The following parties are currently holding initial business discussions:

Miele & Cie. KG
Carl-Miele-Straße 29
D-33332 Gütersloh

and

In the interests of all parties and to facilitate disclosure of detailed information about business plans regarding (description of possible project/cooperation), the parties involved agree to the following confidentiality measures:

1. The undersigned undertakes to keep secret all documents and other information received from Miele including expertise, company-confidential matters or business plans and not to make this information accessible to third parties.
2. This obligation to secrecy continues to apply even if it should become clear that a cooperation is no longer a feasible option. In this case, the undersigned must, at Miele's request, immediately return all documents provided by Miele.
3. Should a cooperation be agreed upon, the parties will sign a confidentiality agreement which renders this agreement invalid.

Location, Date

Signature